

Annie Booth - pianist & composer

Short Bio

Annie Booth, a native of Denver, Colorado, USA, is an award-winning pianist, composer and educator. After receiving her education at the University of Colorado-Boulder (BM in jazz studies) in 2011, she has been an active force on the Colorado and national jazz scene as both a leader of her own group (the Annie Booth Trio) and as a busy side-woman (Greg Gisbert Quartet et al). She is a recipient of the ASCAP Young Jazz Composers' Award (2011 & 2017), the 2017 ASCAP Phoebe Jacobs Prize and has been named "Best in Denver" in the jazz genre by Denver's Westword magazine in 2015, 2016, & 2017. Annie Booth has released three acclaimed albums under her name, Wanderlust (2014), Festive! (2016), and Abundance: Live At Mighty Fine (2017). In addition to performing and composing, she is active in jazz education, teaching the next generation of jazz through the Colorado Conservatory For The Jazz Arts (CCJA, www.jazzarts.org).
